

Bones of the Body Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. Lower jaw, only moveable bone of the skull.
6. Often called the tailbone, a region of the vertebrae.
7. Smallest bone in the human body, located in the inner ear.

Down

1. Longest bone in the body, used to calculate stature in an equation.
2. Generally the last epiphysis to fuse, between 18 and 25 years old.

- 8. Number of bones the skull accounts for (written words).
- 11. Bones of the knees.
- 14. Upper arm bone, your "funny bone".
- 16. The shaft of a long bone.
- 18. Area to best estimate sex from, besides the skull.
- 4. Name for the bones of the toes and fingers.
- 5. Lower arm bone that moves depending on hand position (palms facing up or down).
- 8. Number of bones in the adult skeleton (written words).
- 9. The ribs attach to this region of the vertebrae.
- 10. The cap of a bone that fuses to the shaft.
- 12. Number of pairs of ribs (written words).
- 13. Often referred to as the small of the back, this vertebrae region takes the most stress.
- 15. Best area to estimate race/ancestry from.
- 17. Irregular interlocking joints of the cranium.