

Gender: Ideas, Interactions, Institutions - A Crossword Puzzle for Ch 13: Politics

Across

3. prioritizing the individual over the group

Down

1. a perfectly gender-egalitarian society of theoretically contested design

5. an amendment that would make gender equality a matter of constitutional guarantee instead of legislative gains and losses
6. strategies for creating gender equality that target sexism by dismantling legal barriers and reducing sex discrimination
7. strategies for creating gender equality that target androcentrism by raising the value of the feminine to match the value of the masculine
9. how state policies and practices enforce certain gender rules and differently affect people of different genders
14. In 2010, a ban against women serving on these military transport vessels was lifted
15. a type of policy making that demands consideration of the effects on both men and women in designing social programs, policies, and regulations
16. In 2013, twenty-two American states passed seventy laws aimed at restricting women's access to this
18. one of the things Vienna did to make the city more functional for women and "atypical" men
21. one of Dove's sibling companies, also owned by Unilever
22. movements that function independently of others' participation and approval
23. a type of representation that describes government policies that are important and helpful to a particular collective interest
24. an institution in which we find embedded feminists
25. single people got the right to use these in 1972 thanks to Eisenstadt v. Baird
26. strategies for creating gender equality that target subordination by encouraging men and women to participate equally in activities labeled masculine and feminine
27. How Pantene suggested women could overcome gender discrimination
28. the use of feminist-sounding language and imagery for marketing purposes by corporations
2. institutions entrusted with the power to regulate everyday life on behalf of a national group or groups
4. the body of individuals elected to represent their constituents in regulating the affairs of the country
8. a type of representation that describes a group's physical presence in government
9. the body types and gender identities of the persons who hold political office
10. an idea that lacks resonance and seems strange, unlikely, or impossible to most members of a population
11. individuals and groups who organize to oppose social change
12. the hashtag Cover Girl uses to associate its product with female empowerment
13. the percent of Americans who say they would support a qualified female candidate for President
17. a book criticized for promoting individual female achievement over group advancement
19. Among other things, evangelist Pat Robertson said that feminists practiced this
20. the process of making decisions for the nation, ensuring the state's accountability to its citizens, and enforcing the laws of the land
22. activists in the fight against human slavery
23. the right to vote and run for political office