

Untitled

Across

2. This cool, large farm animal can have big or small spots and can be different colors like black, brown or white. Some people drink the milk that it provides.
3. This farm animal likes to roll around in dirt and get all messy. The largest can weigh over 2,000 pounds, but the smallest can fit inside a teacup!
5. These helpful animals provide a fun way to get around and can help pull things. Some types, like the Appaloosa, have a colorful spotted coat.
7. This cute, fluffy creature can hop quickly from place to place, has long ears, and loves eating carrots.
8. Sometimes found as a mascot in fire stations, long ago it was a brave helper of fire fighters and controlled the horses that pulled the equipment, steering them to the fires.
10. This spotted cat is the fastest mammal on land. It can go the same speed as a car.
11. This amphibious croaking creature has super jumping abilities. It lives all over the world and loves the water.

Down

1. owl This type of spotted bird can turn his head all the way around. It also likes to fly around at night to catch its prey.
4. This really tall animal has a long neck that helps it eat the leaves off of trees. Did you know it also has a blue tongue?
5. This dog-like cat relative is known for its laughing cackle and lives in Africa.
6. This adorable animal was featured in one of Disney's movies. It has a light yellowish brown coat with bright white spots and is the young form of an animal that likes to be near woods.
9. This big, stealthy cat moves quickly and gracefully. Its spotted coat helps it blend in with its surroundings to sneak up on prey.