WAASSA Crossword: March 2017

Across

2. The tradition of a person marrying within their own social group or community

5. An unfavourable attitude towards a particular group, not based on reason

Down

1. Social relations that are defined by impersonal and indirect interactions amongst people, as opposed to personal and direct interactions

7. A pattern of residence in which a newly married couple settle in a household with no connection to either side of the family

8. A process by which religion loses influence in a society or culture

10. A term referring to kinship ties based on bloodlines

12. A political system in which power is held by religious organisations

13. A theoretical approach to sociology and anthropology that seeks to find objective truths and determine universal social 'laws'

14. A term to describe a family structure that consists of a couple and their children

15. A term referring to an agricultural practice in which plants are slashed down and then burned to form fertile fields for farming

3. A process by which higher-income people move into lower-income areas, changing the nature of the neighbourhood

4. A culture within a culture that has unique traditions, values and practices of its own

6. A pattern of residence in which a newly married couple settles in the husband's mother's brother's house or community.

9. A social practice that is strongly forbidden

11. A process in which people move from rural or regional areas to highly populated urban centres