

Affecting Change

Across

3. This acronym describes an organized group that works independently from the government on issues
4. When someone takes responsibility for themselves
9. In Canada, it can refer to a person with certain collective rights because they are Metis or First Nations
10. Formally accused of a crime
11. Someone whose first language is French
12. Someone who has an interest in an issue because it affects them

Down

1. A First Nations group that has lived in the Great Bear Rainforest for over 10,000 years
2. This type of logging ensures the forestry industry disrupts a forest as little as possible (two words)
5. A group of organizations working together
6. When a street, train track, or other important infrastructure is obstructed
7. When a group of people gather together and rally for a certain cause or issue
8. This type of organization is made of individuals who are working together on an issue, and is not government led