

Agriculture terms to know

Across

2. means any technological application that uses biological systems, living organisms, or derivatives thereof, to make or modify products or process for specific use

Down

1. regards a system of agricultural organization whereas farm laborers are not compensated via wages

4. use of little labor and capital to increase agricultural productivity
 8. expenditure of much labor and capital on a piece of land to increase its productivity
 9. characteristic of farmers or their way of life
 10. the cultivation of aquatic organisms (as shellfish or fish) especially for food
 11. a second crop is planted after the first has been harvested
 12. term used to describe large scale farming and ranching operations that employ vast land bases, large mechanized equipment, factory-type labor forces, and the latest technology
 15. a factory like a farm devoted to either livestock fattening or dairying, all feed is imported and no crops are grown on the farm
3. the feeding relationships between a species in biotic community
 5. changes made to the environment, the use of pesticides to grow crops and the effects it has on the soil and environment
 6. highly mechanized, large-scale farming, usually under corporate ownership
 7. the cultural landscape of agricultural areas
 13. the practice of rotating use different fields from crop to crop each year
 14. the cultivation of domesticated crops and the raising of domesticated animals