

Classifying Animals and Plants

Across

2. Mammals and birds are _____-blooded
4. to arrange in a specific order or group by categories based upon similarities
9. An animals without a backbone
11. This animal has feathers and wings, lays eggs on land, and has lungs
12. Non-Flowering Plants reproduce using _____
13. Some Flowering plants produce _____, which grow around the seeds to protect them
14. Fish, Amphibians, and Reptiles are _____-blooded

Down

1. This animal gives birth to live young, has hair or fur, and feeds milk to their babies
3. This animal lays eggs in water, use gills, and has scales and fins
4. Coniferous trees grow _____ to make seeds
5. This animal has smooth, moist skin, use gills as young and lungs as an adult, and lay eggs in water
6. A _____ plant is a plant with flowers that make seeds
7. An animal with a backbone

- 8. This animal has dry skin with scales, lay eggs on land, and use lungs
- 10. This animal has an exoskeleton, segmented bodies and jointed legs, and lays eggs on land