

DATABASES

Across

- 3. a database system in which each database consists of a single file not linked to any other file
- 6. evidence that establishes or confirms the accuracy or truth of something
- 7. based on data stored in a tabular form
- 11. A column in a database table containing values
- 12. a question

Down

- 1. to confirm something
- 2. A collection of records in a relational database.
- 4. An area of a database record
- 5. When this value occurs in other tables as a reference to a particular row in the first table
- 8. the manner or style of arranging and coordinating parts
- 9. different sets of attributes such as "name" or "price" and are connected via relationships like "bought"
- 10. An ordered set of fields