

Famous Journalists

Across

4. - American journalist and author who focuses on media criticism, serving as the host of CNN's Reliable Sources and covering media trends and controversies.
5. - American media mogul, talk show host, and philanthropist who has had a significant impact on the television industry and popular culture with her influential talk show and media ventures.
8. - American investigative journalist and author, known for his reporting on the Watergate scandal alongside Carl Bernstein, which led to the resignation of President Richard Nixon.
9. - American journalist and television host who became the first solo female anchor of a major evening news broadcast and has interviewed a wide range of notable figures.

Down

1. - American broadcast journalist and war correspondent, known for his groundbreaking work in radio and television journalism, especially during World War II.
2. - British-Iranian journalist and television host who has served as CNN's chief international anchor, covering major international news stories and conducting interviews with world leaders.
3. - American television journalist known for her work on 60 Minutes, Primetime Live, and ABC World News, where she served as an anchor and conducted notable interviews.
6. - American television journalist and attorney who currently co-anchors NBC's Today Show and has covered major news stories, including political events and high-profile interviews.

11. - American broadcast journalist and anchorman who was a trusted voice in television news and famously reported on significant events such as the JFK assassination and the Apollo moon landing.
14. - American journalist and former anchor of the CBS Evening News, known for his coverage of significant events and controversies surrounding his reporting.
18. - British journalist known for his controversial interview with Princess Diana and subsequent involvement in the Michael Jackson documentary, "Living with Michael Jackson."
19. - American broadcast journalist and television personality who broke barriers as a female journalist and conducted notable interviews with influential figures across various fields.
20. - American journalist known for his investigative reporting and his work on the CBS program 60 Minutes, where he conducted in-depth interviews with prominent individuals.
7. - American broadcast journalist, television personality, and interviewer who paved the way for women in journalism and conducted high-profile interviews with world leaders and celebrities.
10. - American war correspondent and journalist who reported on conflicts and events such as World War II, the Vietnam War, and the civil rights movement.
12. - American television journalist and anchor who has worked for CNN, Al Jazeera America, and currently hosts the news program Matter of Fact with Soledad O'Brien.
13. - British journalist and foreign correspondent who has reported on international conflicts and events, bringing global news to audiences around the world.
15. - American journalist and commentator best known for his essays and commentaries on the CBS program 60 Minutes, where he provided unique perspectives on various topics.
16. - American television journalist and author who anchored the NBC Nightly News for over 20 years, covering major events and becoming one of the most respected news personalities.
17. - American journalist and author known for his work as the anchor of CNN's The Lead with Jake Tapper and his coverage of political news and events.