

Horticulture Industry Review

Across

3. The growing, harvesting, storing, processing, and marketing of vegetables
7. Type of horticulture that produces and uses plants to make outdoor environments more appealing
9. Designs, plans, installs, and maintains plants in an outdoor environment
11. He started the basis for genetics in 1843
12. The Growing, processing, and sale of ornamental plants, flowers, fruits, vegetables, and nuts
13. He speculated that the roots of plants absorb nutrients

Down

1. Type of plant grown for its beautiful colored leaves and stems
2. Comes from the latin word "hortus" and "culture"
4. Type of horticulture used for growing and using plants for their beauty
5. Shrubs and ornamental trees are grown here
6. Total value of the horticulture industry was $6.9 billion in 2018 in this U.S. state
8. The growing, harvesting, storing, processing, and marketing of fruits and nuts

14. Swedish Botanist who developed a system for naming plants

10. The production, transportation, and use of flowers and foliage plants