

Internet Crossword

Across

2. means getting information from another computer.
3. a computer that is used on a desk and is too big to be moved easily.
7. we use it to protect our data from being stolen.
8. the programs that tell the hardware what to do.
9. translates or interprets the data.

Down

1. a computer which is easy to carry around.
4. a mobile phone that can do more than other phones.
5. a network that connects millions of computers worldwide.
6. it is like a book that has one or more pages called web pages.