Jayme Naylor

Across

2. Being able to communicate with people over the internet

6. The act of having relationships with people online or in real life

8. The outcome of something

11. How you act and are online

12. Being not focused on the task at hand due to social media or other things

Down

1. Sexual acts done over the phone that could potentially lead to getting out into the internet

3. Posting too much online

4. Playing nice on the internet

5. Being able to talk nicely to people online

7. Being forced to do something in person or online

9. Footprint What you leave behind when you post

10. The possibility of something happening