

Jean Watson's Theory of Human Caring

Across

3. founder of Watson's Caring _____ Institute.
 7. these parts make up a person as a whole according to Watson.
 10. Is viewed in the holistic approach.
 15. Is both a science and an art.

Down

1. A caring _____ involves an action and choice by the nurse and the other
 2. A concept central to Watson's theory.
 4. carative vs. _____
 5. "special loving attention"

17. _____ field corresponds to the person's frame of reference or the totality of human experience.
6. should be conducive to a holistic healing
7. environment, person, health, and nursing
8. A relationship that seeks to connect with and embrace the spirit or soul of another through caring and healing.
9. theory of _____ caring
11. Jean Watson is a graduate of the _____-Gayle school of nursing.
12. Can be viewed as the nurses moral ideal of preserving human dignity.
13. Jean Watson's theory considers not only the cared for but the _____.
14. an extension of the carative factors are the clinical caritas _____.
16. There are _____ carative factors.