

kamma and rebirth crossword

Across

6. there are six of these, which one a person is reborn in depends on their previous kamma
7. a person who has reached enlightenment, but chooses to stay within the cycle of rebirth to help others reach enlightenment
9. the cycle of life, death and rebirth that everyone is trapped in until they reach enlightenment
10. a bad, morally-wrong action
11. one of the three poisons, represented by a rooster

Down

1. a good, ethical action
2. one of the three poisons, represented by a pig
3. there are three of these, they are the things that keep a person trapped in the cycle of rebirth, represented by a pig, a snake and a rooster
4. reaching enlightenment, freedom from the cycle of rebirth
5. literally means 'action', the idea that a person's present actions determine their future happiness
8. one of the three poisons, represented by a snake