

P Medical Abbreviations

Across

1. As needed
2. Provides the basis on which diagnosis and treatment will be delivered
3. The overarching term for a surplus of circulatory diseases that affect the arteries, lymphatic vessels, and veins
4. The amount of urine in the bladder after urination
5. op Before surgery (includes H&P, medical consent, IV insertion)
6. Personal identifiable information to protect a patient's confidentiality
8. Includes a mask, gloves, and goggles
9. op After surgery (Managing pain and patient, infection prevention)

Down

1. A link of medical science, chemistry to dispense medications
2. A disorder that is caused by some kind of traumatic or shocking event
3. The range of motion that is from an external force
4. Utilizes radioactive drugs to reveal how tissues or organs are functioning
5. Infection of a woman's reproductive organs
6. Blockage of one of the pulmonary arteries in the lungs
7. A type of healthcare that provides maximum benefits if a physician or provider is seen in the designated network

- 10. By mouth
- 11. After meals

- 8. This kind of therapy helps individuals recover from injuries by the use of utilizing maximum body movement
- 10. Premature ventricular contractions or abnormal contractions that produce a heartbeat sooner than the expected, regular beat