

Regional Integration

Across

4. This is used to describe a company operating in several countries.
6. Involving two parties, especially countries
7. The study of production, distribution and consumption of goods and services.
8. having members or contributors from several groups, especially several different countries.
10. a type of intergovernmental agreement

Down

1. the theory or practice of regional rather than central systems of administration or economic, cultural, or political affiliation.
2. mutual acceptance of a proposal or statement
3. This is the use of government revenue collection and expenditure to influence a country's economy.
5. the action or process of integrating.
9. This involves the transfer of goods or services from one person or entity to another, often in exchange for money