

Roman Catholic Countries

Across

3. This European country was invaded in 1939 by the Nazis, which ultimately started WW2
5. This South American country's name comes from the word equator which runs through it
8. The pope lives in this country
9. This country has the tallest water fall in the world, Angel Falls, at 3,212 feet
12. Adolf Hitler was born in this country
13. This country had a great potato famine from 1845-1852

Down

1. Only 13.6 percent of this European country's population goes to church on Sunday
2. This European country has the highest number of castles per capita
4. Almost 30% of this European country's population were millionaires in 2014
6. This European country is the world's most visited country
7. This African island country has an island named Bird Island which contains the world's largest tortoise at 670 pounds
10. This European country is the Sixth smallest country in the world. Argentina This South American country's name comes from the Latin word for silver
11. This African country has the highest percentage of women in parliament
14. This country is located in Europe and is the second richest country in the world