

SCM Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. The percent of customer orders filled completely.
6. service Integrated rail and motor service.
7. Typically used to support customer requirements by positioning select inventory in a local market

Down

1. A carriers method of charging for transportation services performed.
2. The amount typically in transit between facilities or on order but not received.

warehouse in anticipation of responding to customer need.

- 8. The oldest mode of transport.
 - 12. Inventory that will be donated, destroyed, or sold at a loss.
 - 15. Specific locations that are assigned to products in a warehouse layout on the basis of individual characteristics.
 - 16. The variation in sales during inventory replenishment.
 - 21. The placement of specific products in selected pallet locations.
 - 22. Combining inventory from multiple origins into a customized assortment to meet the needs of a specific customer.
- 3. selection A specific customer's order is selected and prepared for shipment as the work assignment by a warehouse management system.
 - 4. The remainder of inventory in the typical logistics system.
 - 9. EOQ
 - 10. When inventory is held for a longer time than normally required for replenishment.
 - 11. The ability of a mode to handle any transport requirements.
 - 13. When portions of a shipment need to be delivered to different destinations.
 - 14. A basic transportation method or form.
 - 16. Occurs when the original shipment destination is changed after a product has been shipped.
 - 17. The audit of selected inventory on a cyclic schedule.
 - 18. DRP schedules are developed using weekly time increments called _____?
 - 19. Services that refer to the coordination of warehouse activities to customize product.
 - 20. Determine proper charges after payment of a freight bill has been made.
 - 22. The destination party