

Serbian Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. This street was originally settled by Gypsies, but eventually became a permanent establishment, which housed artisans
3. This mountain village consists of wood planked houses; individuals in this area are known for their pottery and knitting
10. This building is dedicated to the inventor, Nikola Tesla, who invented the alternating current motor
14. Capital city
17. Primary religion
18. Scientist, electrical engineer, and inventor, who worked with Thomas Edison and tremendously helped our current understanding of electricity and communication
20. Currency used
22. The monument from the skulls of the rebels in the Battle of Cegar

Down

1. Also known as Devil's Town, this is a group of 202 rock formations on Radan Mountain
4. The most famous basketball player from Serbia, who played for Partizan Belgrade, LA Lakers, and many other important teams
5. Located near River Sava and Danube, this building served as a defender of this area's point of access; it helped to defend against many invasions
6. Famous model, musician, actress, and fashion designer; she participated in The Fifth Element, The Messenger: The Story of Joan of Arc and Resident Evil
7. Previously working as an investigative reporter, he was the assistant editor for The New York Times Investigations Desk
8. Located near Danube, this is a symbol of the turmoil this particular area has endured over time
9. A famous film director; he won the best director award at Cannes for Time of the Gypsies
11. This former island is located near the Sava River, and is covered in thick trees
12. Tennis professional that had undefeated streak in the beginning of the 2011 season
13. He is considered to be one of the best soccer defenders in the world; he had a strong partnership with Rio Ferdinand
15. A famous poet, who received the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in the Prose Poems (1990)
16. The expert and professional in method development regarding reactor design and analysis; she is also known for using medicine for radiation
18. This fort was built in the 18th century, and was controlled by the Turks
19. A Serbian American actor who was in A Streetcar Named Desire, for which he won the Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor
21. Type of government