

SOCIOLOGY

Across

3. The theory claiming society to be a set of interdependent parts.
4. Organization of written/spoken symbols into a standardized system.
7. Written rules of conduct enforced by the government.
13. Believed the proletariat would overthrow the bourgeoisie to create a classless society/ believe most change came from conflict.
14. Shared rules of conduct that tell people how to act in a specific situation.
15. Defines society as a set of interdependent parts to work together to maintain the system/ influenced by Darwin.
18. The social science that studies human society and social behavior.
20. How people relate to one another and influence their behavior.
21. Societal rules (Cheating, neglecting a child).
22. Something that represents something else.
24. Consists of all the shared products in human groups.
26. Study of past events.
27. A group of interdependent people organized to share a common culture.

Down

1. Deals with behavior and thoughts of organisms.
2. Believed you could only study sociology through statistics.
5. Father of sociology/ "statics vs dynamics".
6. Shared beliefs about what is good and bad.
8. Abstract human creations.
9. The theory focusing on how people relate to each other in everyday situations.
10. Knowledge, Skills, Tools (High or low tech) combination of objects and how to use them.
11. Comparing past and present cultures.
12. He was interested in "Verstehen".
16. Choices people make based on their needs and wants.
17. The theory that claims change is most often created by competition or social disruptions.
19. The examination of the organization and operation of governments.
23. Physical Objects
25. Shaking hands, saying hello.