Statistics Crossword Puzzle

Across

5. used in statistics to represent all possible measurement or outcomes.

6. a branch of mathematics dealing with the collection, analysis, interpretation, and presentation of masses of numerical data.

Down

1. are used to summarize and describe data.

2. scale that denotes rank.

3. a categorical level of measurement with no intrinsic order.

7. any numerical quantity that characterizes a given population or some aspect of it.

9. a variable that is being manipulated in experiments.

11. a type of variable that is alphanumeric.

13. in this level they don't have a "true zero" value.

14. a variable being affected by the independent variable.

15. in this level there is an absolute zero value.

4. branch of statistics that analyses based from the sample.

8. a type of variable that is numeric.

10. refers to a portion of a population.

12. a numerical fact or datum, especially one computed from a sample.