

The American Economic Boom

Across

2. This industry was not doing well due to the increased use of electricity
3. The leader of America
9. The main city where Ford cars were produced

Down

1. This 'faire' was a way for businesses to make as much money as they wanted.
3. A term used to describe the advertising methods used by companies.

11. These Americans were discriminated against for jobs

16. These were published to promote goods available to buy.

17. Many Americans wanted to this this kind of life

20. These were placed on goods from abroad to make American goods cheaper.

21. The type of 'goods' such as cars, radios and washing machines

22. This war gave America a head start in the economy

4. The percentage of people that lived below the poverty line

5. These were low in the 1920s so people had more money to spend.

6. These Americans were given poor land and did not do well in the 1920s

7. A way of promoting goods

8. The name of the political party in charge during the 1920s

10. This means living in the countryside

12. Another term for being rich and wealthy

13. The term used when many identical goods are made

14. Many of these were built in the big cities

15. The name of the famous motor car maker

17. This 'line' was a method of production in the 1920s

18. These places grew as Americans moved away from the cities to live.

19. This agricultural group did not do well in the 1920s