

The Use of Resources

Across

4. these are gifts of nature such as land, water, minerals, forestry, animals, sunlight and wind.
5. an example of a renewable resource.
7. development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

Down

1. these are the talents, skills, abilities and creativity which individuals possess.
2. these are resources which can be reinforced, resupplied, replaced or replenished after it has been used.

- 10. the most important resource
- 11. A non communicable disease common in Jamaica

- 3. these are resources which cannot be replaced or resupplied after it has been used.
- 6. an example of a non-renewable Resource.
- 8. This is very important to the development of the human resource
- 9. anything natural or physical which can be harnessed to create wealth or improve the standard of living of people.