Verification and falsification

Across
3. the falsification principle
5. religious statements are not cognitive but still can be meaningful.
6. 'do not have to specify what would count against an assertion.'
7. prooving a statement to be false
9. believes Hare's view is not very coherent
11. a word that carries other associations with it.
12. 'imagine a lunatic...'

Down
1. religious language is symbolic
2. when a word stands for something
4. proove truth of a statement
8. language, truth and logic
10. vienna  that group of philosophers who met after WW1.