

Writing Key Words

Across

2. Every story needs an ending that matches the beginning and middle.
4. words like: the next day, later on, first, next, finally
6. Words we use to help the reader imagine the characters, settings and events.
7. States an opinion or agrees/disagrees with a point of view
10. Details that support your opinion in a piece of writing.
11. What a piece of writing is about
15. An event or series of events that happen to a character.
16. What characters say and has quotation marks around it.

Down

1. type of writing that inform or explain something to the reader.
3. Details that describe the way things look, smell, sound, taste, or feel.
5. How you group ideas and information together
8. opinion or perspective of the writer
9. The beginning of a piece of writing
12. A real or imaginary story. Will have characters, setting, plot and dialogue.
13. statement The end of a piece of writing
14. The order of events in a narrative