

Wuthering Heights Characters

Across

2. A character who opposes the protagonist or hero in a story
7. Heathcliff is an example of this kind of hero.
8. An orphan brought to live at Wuthering Heights by Mr. Earnshaw. He falls in love with Catherine Earnshaw and is jealous of her time spent at Thrushcross Grange. Experiences abuse and neglect from his adoptive brother.
9. Edgar's sister, who falls in love and marries Heathcliff.
10. This character says "I AM Heathcliff! He's always, always in my mind: not as a pleasure, any more than I am always a pleasure to myself, but as my

Down

1. Tells the audience what the personality of the character
3. The main character or hero in a story
4. The description of the distinctive nature or features of someone or something.
5. Acronym used for characterization.
6. A sensible, intelligent, and compassionate woman, she grew up essentially alongside Hindley and Catherine Earnshaw and is deeply involved in the story she tells.
12. This character is a tenant at Thrushcross Grange. He finds himself at a loss when he witnesses the own being.” Known for her dual personality, depending on who she is around.

11. Heathcliff assumes custody of this character, and raises him as an uneducated field worker, just as Hindley had done to Heathcliff.
13. Shows things that reveal the personality of a character
14. Hindley's wife that dies shortly after giving birth to Hareton.
15. This character does not enjoy Heathcliff's presence and is often jealous of his time with Catherine. He tells Catherine “Catherine, unless we are to have cold tea, please to come to the table.”
17. This character has a history of getting drunk and causing destruction. He dislikes his son and gives its care to Nelly.

strange household's.

16. A long-winded, fanatically religious, elderly servant at Wuthering Heights. He is strange, stubborn, and unkind, and he speaks with a thick Yorkshire accent.